MOTION FOR EXPEDITED HEARING

The debtor's sister has over $100,000.00 that belongs to the bankruptcy estate. The trustee needs to have that money sequestered before it is spent and forever lost. Accordingly, the trustee moves this Court for an expedited hearing on the trustee's Motion For Preliminary Injunction. The trustee's motion is more fully set forth in and is supported by the following Memorandum Of Points and Authorities.

1 DATED June 9, 2010.

7 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

8 Prior to the filing of this bankruptcy case on September 17, 9 2009, the debtor had over $100,000.00 in a bank account at Digital 10 Federal Credit Union ("DFCU") in Massachusetts. In a mortgage 11 application signed by the debtor on March 29, 2009, the debtor told 12 Countrywide Bank that the money was hers so that she could get a 13 mortgage for her new house in Fountain Hills. The debtor also reported 14 the interest income from the account on her 2008 federal income tax 15 return.

16 On April 30, 2009, $101,258.65 was transferred from the 17 debtor's account at DFCU account to a new account at DFCU in the name of 18 the debtor's sister, Liana Blair ("Blair"). However, the signature card 19 for that newly created account shows that Blair holds the money for the 20 debtor's benefit.

21 This money, once spent, will likely never be recovered.
22 Accordingly, the trustee requests an expedited hearing on his motion for 23 the entry of a preliminary injunction. At that hearing, the trustee 24 will ask the Court to enter appropriate orders to prevent the further 25 expenditure of those funds. The trustee requests that the hearing be 26 held as soon as possible.

WHEREFORE, the trustee prays for an expedited hearing on his motion for the entry of a preliminary injunction to prevent further loss or expenditure of these funds.

DATED June 9, 2010.
